29. Appu is a Plus One Science student. He is a student who sits quietly and attends classes. Teachers have no complaints about Appu. Appu does not participate in any extracurricular activities in school. Appu's mindset is that all of this is a 'bore'. In the evening, after class, children play football on the ground. But Appu is not interested in that either. He walks home lazily. When he reaches home, if his parents ask something, he answers, but otherwise, Appu has no other interactions. Then, the only thing he does is look at his mobile for a while. He watches some Reels. Thus, he spends time lazily. He wakes up late. He does not participate in any organizational activities in the church. He only goes to Mass on Sundays. Even then, he does not necessarily go on time or early. He often stands outside the church. If any teacher asks him to go inside the church, he obeys without any objection. Having studied the lesson "Salt of the Earth and Light of the World," what is your opinion about Appu's social life ? As a Christian, how do you think Appu should live in society ?
